

DEMOCRACY, DEVELOPMENT, MODERNIZATION: INSIGHTS FROM THREE WORLDS

Tartu, 4 March 2013

Conference programme

Venue: Domus Dorpatensis (Ülikooli 7, 2nd floor, www.dorpatensis.ee/en)

09:30–11:20

OPENING OF THE CONFERENCE

EUROPE: DIVIDED IN TIME AND SPACE

Chair

Viacheslav Morozov

Philipp Casula

University of Zürich
Russia's and Europe's Borderlands as Sites of Intervention and Management

Richard Sakwa

University of Kent
Axiological versus Dialogical Politics in Contemporary Europe

Maria Mälksoo

University of Tartu
In Search of a Modern Mnemonic Narrative of Communism: Russia's Mnemopolitical Mimesis

11:20–11:50

Coffee break

11:50–13:00

CHALLENGING WESTERN HEGEMONY

Chair

Maria Mälksoo

Elena Pavlova

St. Petersburg State University
Towards an Alternative Theory of Normative Power: The Latin American Case

Alexander Lomanov

Institute of Far Eastern Studies of the Russian Academy of Sciences, Moscow
The Change of Leadership in China and the Prospects of the "Universal Values with Chinese Specifics"

13:00–14:30

Lunch

14:30–16:10	CONTEXTUALISING DEMOCRACY
Chair	Richard Sakwa
Artemy Magun	European University at St. Petersburg Democracy Between Nation and Empire. Spinoza and Leibnitz on the Political Constitution
Pertti Joenniemi	Karelian Institute, University of Eastern Finland Democracy as a Requirement Part of Globalization: Notes on the Ensuing Contests
Daniel de Mendonça	Federal University of Pelotas Brazilian Democracy During and After Lula’s Time: The Peculiar Populism in the Office
16:10–16:30	Coffee break
16:30–18:10	THE ROAD TO FREEDOM
Chair	Philipp Casula
Viacheslav Morozov	University of Tartu Emancipating “Human Rights”
Alejandro Liberman	Libertad & Progreso Foundation The New School and Democracy. A Strategic Alliance for the Exercise of the Future Freedom. The Case of Argentina
Urmas Pappel	University of Tartu Ontology of Freedom in Chinese Orthodox Philosophy
18:10–18:30	CONCLUDING REMARKS