

Program

International Summer School

Prospects for Democracy, Stability and Europeanization in Ukraine: What lessons from the Baltic experience?

August 25-29, 2014, Tartu, Estonia

August 24 (Sunday): Arrival

17.40 Arrival of Ukrainian participants at Tallinn Airport
Bus transfer to Tartu (2.5 hours)
Accommodation and dinner at hotel Dorpat (Soola 6)

August 25 (Monday): Democratization and Nation-Building in Divided Societies

Venue: Faculty of Social Sciences and Education, Lossi 36, room 214)

9.00 Ukrainian participants meet Mariana Semenyshyn at the lobby of hotel Dorpat, walk over to the University
9.30 -11.00 Opening and Introduction by Dr. Piret Ehin, Director of the Centre for EU-Russia Studies, University of Tartu
11.15 - 12.45 Lecture: “Comparative Democratization in Divided Societies” (Prof. Vello Pettai)
12.45 – 14.00 Lunch
14.00 – 15.30 Lecture: “Nation-Building and Societal Integration in Post-Communist Societies” (Kristina Kallas)
15.45 – 17.15 Discussion on democratization and nation-building (led by Kristina Kallas and Dr. Heiko Pääbo)
17.30 – 18.30 Guided tour of Tartu city centre (led by Dr. Heiko Pääbo)
19.00 Group dinner for all participants at University Café (Ülikooli 20)

August 26 (Tuesday): European Integration, EU enlargement and the Eastern Partnership

(venue: Faculty of Social Sciences and Education, Lossi 36, room 103)

9.30-11.00 Lecture “EU Enlargement and the Eastern Partnership: State of Play and Lessons Learned” (Dr. Iain Ferguson)
11.15 – 12.45 Lecture “The Baltic Experience from Soviet Union to European Union” (Prof. Andres Kasekamp).
12.45 – 14.00 Lunch
14.00 – 15.30 Lecture “The Impact of the New Member States on the EU's Common Foreign and Security Policy” (Prof. Andres Kasekamp)
15.45 – 17.15 Discussion: “Ukraine-EU relations: Prospects and Challenges” (led by Dr. Piret Ehin and Viktoriya Bryndza)
19:00 Group dinner for all participants at University Café (Ülikooli 20)
20.30 Film screening: The Singing Revolution (by James and Maureen Tusty, 2007) at Lossi 36 room 214

August 27 (Wednesday): Challenges to security and stability in Europe and beyond
(venue: Faculty of Social Sciences and Education, Lossi 36, room 103)

9.30-11.00 Lecture “Russia and the Promotion of Authoritarianism in Post-Soviet Space“ (Prof. Viacheslav Morozov)
11.15-12.45 Lecture “Implications of the Ukrainian Crisis for the Baltic Sea Region” (Prof. Andrey Makarychev)
12.45 – 14.00 Lunch
14.00 – 15.30 Lecture “Separatism and de facto States in Post-Soviet Space” (Dr. Raul Toomla)
15.45 – 17.15 Lecture “Collective Memory and Identity Conflicts in Post-Imperial Context“ (Dr. Heiko Pääbo)
19.00 Group dinner for all participants at University Café (Ülikooli 20)
20.30 Film screening: Living images (by Hardi Volmer, 2013) at Lossi 36 room 214

August 28 (Thursday): Regime Change, Justice, and Rule of Law
(venue: Faculty of Social Sciences and Education, Lossi 36, room 103)

9:30-11.00 Lecture “Transitional Justice” (Prof Vello Pettai & Dr Eva-Clarita Pettai)
11.15-12.45 Lecture “Introducing Rule of Law into Ukrainian society. Cultural aspect.“ (Viktoriya Bryndza, Head of Research and Analysis at pro.mova Analytical Center)
12.45 – 14.00 Lunch
14.00 – 15.00 Visit to the Supreme Court of Estonia (Lossi 17, Tartu)
15.15 – 16.15 Presentation and a Q&A session “Reflections on Estonia’s Transition Experience and Lessons for Ukraine” by Prof. Marju Lauristin, Member of the European Parliament, formerly: leader of the Estonian Popular Front, member of the Riigikogu (Estonian Parliament), Minister of Social Affairs 1992-1994.
17.00-18.45 Student-to-student event “Ukrainian Revolution and Beyond: A Mosaic of Experiences” -- presentations by summer school participants to Estonian and international students at the University of Tartu (venue: Philosophicum, Jakobi 2, room 226)
19.00 Group dinner for all participants at University Café (Ülikooli 20)

August 29 (Friday): Study trip to Tallinn

Ukrainian participants: early breakfast at hotel Dorpat
7.00 Bus transfer to Tallinn (from hotel Dorpat)
9.30 – 11.00 Presentation of Estonian e-democracy and e-governance at E-Estonia Showroom (Lõõtsa 2a)
11.30 -12.30 Meeting with the President of Estonia, Toomas Hendrik Ilves (Ice Cellar of the Kadriorg Palace, Weizenbergi 30)
12.30-13.15 Meeting with Andres Vosman, Director of the Policy Planning Department of the Estonian Ministry of Defense (Ice Cellar of the Kadriorg Palace, Weizenbergi 30)
13.30 - 14.30 Lunch at the KUMU Art Museum (Weizenbergi 34)
15.00 Bus transfer to hotel Santa Barbara (Roosikrantsi 2a), Ukrainian participants check in
Free time in the historic Tallinn Old Town

UNIVERSITY OF TARTU
CENTRE FOR EU-RUSSIA STUDIES

ESTONIAN
DEVELOPMENT
COOPERATION

17.00 – 19.00 Meeting with Mr Viktor Kryzhanivsky, Ambassador of Ukraine to Estonia, as well as representatives of the Ukrainian community in Estonia (Ukrainian Cultural Centre, Laboratooriumi 22)

19.30 Group dinner (restaurant Olde Hansa, Vana Turg 1)

Ukrainian participants: accommodation at hotel Santa Barbara, Roosikrantsi 2a

August 30 (Saturday): Departure

10.30 Bus transfer from the hotel to Tallinn Airport

13.25 Flight to Kyiv